

Mr. Kendall presented the petition of Joseph Downey, J. F. Wheatley, and 103 others, praying that no time be taken off the oyster season.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Chesapeake Bay and Its Tributaries.

Mr. Feldmeyer presented the petition from clergymen representing various churches and others, against any modification of the Sunday law.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Dunn presented a memorial from St. Joseph's House of Industry, asking an appropriation.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Waters presented the petition of John E. Hargett and 2,400 other tax payers of Frederick county, asking that $800 per annum be paid to the County School Commissioners of Frederick county, for the benefit of the high schools, instead of the Visitors of Frederick College.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Speaker presented the petition of C. T. Cole, Jas. S. Wheeler and about 125 others, residents of Baltimore county, against any modification in Sunday laws.

Also,

Petition of Benj. Gaskins and 50 other citizens, members of Israel Baptist Church of Baltimore city, against modification of Sunday law.

Also,

The petition of Rev. J. L. Mills, R. W. Hammond and 25 other citizens, of Brooklyn, Anne Arundel county, against any change in the Sunday laws.

Also,

The petition of T. J. Brady, R. B. Smoot and 100 others, against any modification of Sunday law.

Also,

Petition of Rev. T. J. Gost, J. M. Bardler and about 50 others, against any modification of the Sunday laws.