

but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit gratuitous services, nor to interfere with any resident or assistant resident physicians or students at hospitals in the discharge of their hospital or dispensary duties, or with any physician or surgeon from another State or Territory in which he resides, when in actual consultation with a legal practitioner of this State, or with commissioned surgeons of the United States Army or Navy or Marine Hospital service, or with midwives; nor shall the provisions of this Act apply to physicians or surgeons residing on the borders of a neighboring State and duly authorized under the laws thereof to practice medicine or surgery therein, whose practice extends into the limits of this State; provided that such practitioners shall not open an office or appoint a place to meet patients or receive calls within the limits of this State without complying with the provisions of this Act. It shall be unlawful after the passage of this Act for any one to engage in the itinerant vending of any drug, nostrum, ointment or application of any kind, intended for the treatment of disease or injury, or for any such itinerant vender by writing or printing, or any other method, to profess to cure or treat disease, injury or deformity by any drug, nostrum, manipulation or other expedient. Any such itinerant vender so offending shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city or county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each offense.

“61 A. It shall be the duty of the Police Commissioners of Baltimore city and of the Sheriffs of each county in the State to see that all practising physicians in this State shall be legally registered according to the provisions of this Act and of Article 43, of the Code of Public General Laws, within six months from the date of the passage of this Act.

“62. Repealed.

“64. Any person practising or attempting to practice medicine under the name of any other person, whether that person be a resident of this State or not, or whether he or she be deceased or not, or any person acting under the name of and as agent of any other person, in the
