

culverts mentioned in the foregoing sections shall be borne by the county, and how much of the same in each instance shall be borne by any person or persons, corporation or corporations, so as aforesaid in interest.

Section 217 E. In order that any claim or claims of adjoining property holders may be fairly dealt with the County Commissioners shall have power, upon presentation of any such claim or claims, after such reasonable notice as they may fix, to the claimant or claimants and all other parties interested in such claim or claims, of the time and place of such hearing, to hear and determine such claim or claims and fix the amount, if any thereof, and at the same time or times, what part thereof, if any, shall be paid by any person or persons, corporation or corporations that in the judgment of said County Commissioners will be benefited by such change, and said County Commissioners, in their discretion, may require such person or persons, corporation or corporations, to pay or secure the payment of or make a binding agreement to pay the same, or any part thereof, before proceeding with the work, or require such an agreement to be included in the contract provided for in section 217 D hereof, (section next before last, refer to it by No.)

Which was read a first time.

On motion of Mr. Stewart,
At 11.30 A. M.,
The House adjourned until 8 P. M., Monday.

NIGHT SESSION.

MONDAY, March 5th, 1900.

The House met at 8 P. M., and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. Earle Maloy.

Present at the call of the roll the following members :