When the members-elect from Dorchester county came forward to the Speaker's desk to qualify, Mr. Linthicum protested against the oath of office being administered to Joseph B. Andrews, from said county, as read, and asked that he stand aside until the completion of the organization of the House.

Which request was granted.

When the members-elect from Prince George's county came forward to the Speaker's desk to qualify, Mr. Wolfe, of Howard county, protested against the oath of office being administered to Mr. George C. Merrick, of said county, and asked that he stand aside until the completion of the organization of the House.

Which request was granted.

At the conclusion of the swearing in of the members of the House, Mr. Walbach moved that the oath of office be administered to the members returned as elected, of both Dorchester and Prince George's counties.
