

Eighth Amendment. Amend said section 913 by striking out on the 16th line thereof the words "Appellate Court," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Court of Appeals."

Ninth Amendment. Amend section 916 by striking out the whole of said section, and substituting the following in lieu thereof, to be known as "Section 916."

916. The commission shall ascertain as early as practicable, the amount of money expended in the construction and equipment of the physical properties of each corporation subject hereto and the amounts of money it would require to re-construct and replace them, the amount of the outstanding stock, bonds and indebtedness thereof, and the money, labor, material or other consideration received on account thereof, shall annually ascertain the operating expenses, fixed charges and gross and net receipts thereof, and shall make such other and further investigations of the affairs and finances of such corporation as the commission may deem necessary.

Tenth Amendment, Amend section 117 by striking out beginning on lines 30, 31, 32, 33 and 34 of said section, the words "said commission in its discretion shall have the power to prescribe a system of book-keeping to be observed by any corporation subject hereto, under the penalties prescribed in this section "

Eleventh Amendmend. Amend section 918 by striking out the whole of said section and inserting a new section as follows, to be known as '918,' in lieu thereof :

"918. The said commission, in any examination, investigation or hearing provided for in this Act, shall have power to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and any sheriff or constable executing such process, shall receive the fees provided for by law for similar services and all witnesses summoned shall be allowed the same pay for their attendance as is allowed for the attendance of witnesses before a Justice of the Peace ; all such fees and pay to be paid by the commission or the party summoning them.

Whenever any witness who shall have been duly notified so to do, shall fail to attend for examination or refuse to answer such questions as may be propounded or
