

tion 261, 262 C, 262 K, 262 N and 262 Q, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title 'Harford County,' sub title 'Taxes,' as enacted by the Act of 1898, chapter 204, and re-enact the same with amendments," respectfully report that they have met and considered said disagreeing votes, and they do recommend that the House of Delegates concur in all the amendments proposed by the Senate, except that to strike out lines from 52 to 59 (per engrossed bill), inclusive, of Code section 262 C, and they do recommend that said lines of said section stand as in the original bill, and that said section be amended by adding thereto (at the end of line 47 of printed bill, or 59 of engrossed bill), the following words :

"And for the purpose of selling personal property to collect taxes, the said treasurer shall have, in addition to the power conferred by this sub-title, all the powers possessed by collectors of taxes in said county prior to the passage of the Act of 1898, chapter 204."

And they do further recommend that said bill be further amended as follows :

1. By inserting in line 73 of Code section 262 N of said printed bill, after the word "aforesaid," the words "except witnesses."

2. By adding at the end of section 2 of said bill the following words :

"But nothing herein contained is intended or shall be construed to interfere with or defeat any proceedings already instituted by the said treasurer for the collection of taxes for the years 1898 or 1899."

And they do further recommend that said bill with the amendments proposed and agreed to by the Joint Committee of Conference be passed. The amendments proposed by the Senate are on pages 476 and 477, of Senate Journal.

L. A. WILLIAMS,
AUSTIN L. CROTHERS,
JAS. H. BAKER.

Committee on part of Senate.

JAS. W. FOSTER,
J. S. KIMBLE,
JOHN R. PATTISON.

Committee on part of House.

March 27th, 1900.