

amendment, appropriating the sum of $1,500 to the Fish Commissioner.

6th. That the House concur in the 6th Senate amendment, appropriating the sum of $250 for each of the fiscal years of 1901 and 1902, for the Hebrew Aged Home of Baltimore city.

7th. That the Senate recede from that part of the 7th Senate amendment, which strikes out section 56 of the engrossed bill, appropriating to the National Temperance Hospital of Baltimore city the sum of $1,000, for each of the fiscal years 1901 and 1902.

8th. That the Senate recedes from that part of the 7th Senate amendment, which strikes out sub-section 57 of the engrossed bill, and recommends that said sub-section 57 be amended by striking out the word "fifteen" wherever it occurs in said sub-section 57, and insert in lieu thereof the word "twelve," thereby decreasing the appropriation to twelve thousand dollars for each of the fiscal years 1901 and 1902 for the three medical schools.

9th. That the Senate recede from that part of the seventh Senate amendment, which strikes out sub-section 58 of the engrossed bill leaving the appropriation to the St. Joseph's House of Industry without change.

10th. That the House concur in the second part of the eighth Senate amendment, and also in the third part of said eighth Senate amendment.
