“Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the purpose of said school shall be the fostering of habits of industry and thrift among colored youths, and the inculcation of principles of honesty and morality, and for that purpose care shall be taken to instruct them in all manner of useful trades, handiwork and farmwork, and also to prepare for teaching in the colored schools of this State those who may show an aptitude therefor, and the State Board of Education is hereby authorized and directed to make or approve regulations for the management of said school, and for admissions thereto, and in framing rules for admissions they shall endeavor to provide a fair allotment amongst the colored population of this State.

“Sec. 4. And be it enacted, that upon the completion of the buildings and equipment for said school, and its being opened for work the Governor may, if he deems best, appoint a board of visitors for said school, not exceeding five, to serve without pay, whose duty it shall be to visit the said school from time to time as it may deem best, and submit any recommendation with reference thereto to the said Board of Education.

“Sec. 5. And be it enacted, that the sum of five thousand dollars per annum is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the maintenance and operation of said school, and the comptroller shall draw his warrant for said sum on the treasurer annually, in favor of the State Board of Education.”
