

directly or indirectly interested in said net, fyke, haul seine, boat or other contrivance, and he shall pay before the delivery of such license to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for his county or the Clerk of the Common Pleas of Baltimore city, if he resides therein, the sum of five dollars for each and every pound net fyke, haul seine or other contrivance for taking fish that be five hundred yards and under in length, and three dollars for each and every additional five hundred yards or additional part thereof that he may propose to use, and a fee of twenty-five cents to said clerk for issuing same, and said clerk shall state upon such license the number and size of nets proposed to be used by the licensee.

“95. Any non-resident of this State violating sections 90 to 98, inclusive, of this Article, by the use of any pound net, fyke net, haul seine, boat or other contrivance now known or hereafter invented, in the taking or catching of fish shall, on conviction thereof before some justice of the peace of any county of the State most accessible, forfeit said pound net, fyke net, haul seine, boat or other contrivance, now used or hereafter invented, for taking fish, together with all boats, vessels, tackle used in the violation of this Act, or fined a sum of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or both fine and forfeiture, in the discretion of the justice of the peace trying the same, providing the person feeling aggrieved shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court of said county.

“98. The use of pound nets or stake nets shall be absolutely prohibited in the Chesapeake bay, north of a line one mile south of Pool's Island, except the bay shore of Kent county up to Howel's Point at the mouth of Sassafras river, and also on the Susquenanna river; and any person who shall engage in fishing for sale, with the use of said pound net, stake net or similar contrivance now used or hereafter invented, shall be subject to the same fines and penalties as are prescribed in section 95 of this Article.

“And provided further, that all persons using haul seines and similar contrivances, except pound nets and stake nets, which are hereby prohibited, shall pay the same license and be subject to the provisions of all the