

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the directors of said body corporate shall have the power to declare such dividends of the profits of said body corporate as they may deem proper; provided, that no dividends shall be declared when the capital stock will be impaired thereby.

Dividends.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That said body corporate shall be subject at all time to the provisions of the Act of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, Chapter one hundred and nine.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the stockholders of said body corporate shall be liable to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in said body corporate for all its debts and liabilities upon note, bill or otherwise.

Liability of stockholders.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10, 1900.

CHAPTER 681.

AN ACT to incorporate the Town of Midland, in Allegany County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, The the citizens of the town of Midland, in Allegany County, be and they are hereby created a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Midland," with all the powers and privileges, incident to a body corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any court of law or equity, and may have and use a common seal.

Allegany Co. The Commissioners of Midland. Incorporated.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the corporate and taxable limits of said town shall be as follows; Beginning at a stone marked "M," planted in a garden lot owned by Edward Branon, southeast of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad, at the end of a line drawn north eighteen degrees, east one hundred and twenty-four feet, to a stone marked "A" at the corner of Edward Branon's lot, on the southeast bank of George's Creek, and running north seventy degrees, east two thousand and eighty six feet to the centre of the road marked by a planted stone, and known as the sixteen foot road, leading behind William Clise's distillery; thence south thirty-three degrees, east nine hundred and ninety feet to a planted stone marked No. 1 in the field behind William Clise's distillery; thence north thirty-five degrees, east sixteen hundred and eighty four feet to a maple tree near Thomas Murphy's

Corporate limits of said town.