

for the same from some suitable point south of Wicomico street, in said Ocean City, above high-water mark, and shall have power to construct on this pier such appliances for amusement or use as the said incorporators may determine, and to charge for the use of this pier or appliances such sums of money as the directors of said company shall from time to time see proper to charge; and shall have power to survey, locate, establish, construct and maintain in Worcester County, as hereinafter mentioned, a double track or single track railway, with as many sets of tracks, switches, turn-outs and sidings as said company shall deem expedient or proper for the transportation and carriage of passengers, produce, stock, freight, merchandise, parcels and packages in cars drawn or propelled by electricity in any form, or by compressed air, or by any other improved form of motive power, and either separately or in trains, and shall have full power and right to erect and maintain all motors, poles, conduits, trenches, wires, cables and other connections and things necessary for said purposes; and shall have further power to build bridges, depots, stations, machinery, power-houses, car-barns and all appurtenances to said railway, and all switches leading to and from the same, and all necessary turn-outs and connections in said county, and to charge for the carriage and conveyance of persons and property on said railway such sums of money as the directors of said company shall from time to time see proper to charge, and the course and route of the said railway shall be as follows: The said railway shall begin within the corporate limits of Ocean City, and shall run north and south from such points of beginning, the northern terminus to be at or near Fenwick's Island Lighthouse, in Worcester County, and the southern terminus to be at or near North Beach Life-Saving Station, in Worcester County, and for that purpose, if necessary or expedient, to cross any public or private road, wherever the line of said railway may intersect the same, and for that purpose to exercise, if necessary, the powers of condemnation hereinafter contained; provided, nevertheless, that the said company shall obtain the consent to construct so much of its said railway, as may be located on any of the public highways of Worcester County, from the County Commissioners of Worcester County, which consent said County Commissioners of said county are hereby authorized to give to the said company; provided, also, that said company shall have the right to cross at grade, or by, over or under crossings, or join or connect its railway with any other railway company; and, provided also, that the said company may, and power is hereby given to it, to con-

Power to construct a railway.

May build
depots, bridges
etc.

Power to condemn. etc.