

hundred and fifty feet, measured in a northerly direction from the centre of Fayette street extended, otherwise known as the Sulphur Spring Hollow Road, and running thence in a westerly direction, parallel to and two hundred and fifty feet from the centre line of said street or road to a point due west two hundred and fifty feet from the intersection of the centre line of said street or road, with that of the Old National Pike, otherwise known as Green street extended, and running thence in an easterly direction by a line parallel to the centre line of said Green street extended, or Old National Pike, and two hundred and fifty feet, measured southerly direction from the said centre line until it shall intersect with the city limits.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the real and personal property within said limits as extended by the provisions of this Act shall be assessed and subject to taxation for municipal purposes for the June levy for nineteen hundred and one, of the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, Maryland.

Property
within said
limits, etc.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That T. Leiper Patterson, Arthur H. Amick, Hazelhurst Sprigg, Peter Bareis and Franklin B. Beall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners, with power and authority vested in them, or a majority of them, to re-locate Fayette street, from Brooke avenue, in Reade's addition to said city, and the extension of Fayette street, commonly known as Sulphur Spring Hollow Road, to its intersection with the Old National Pike, or Green street extended, in said city; and to grade, pave or macadamize, sewer, and otherwise improve said street as sought to be re-located, and that the proceedings of said Commissioners hereunder shall be commenced within six months from the date of the passage of this Act.

Commissioners
appointed to re-locate certain street.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have all the power and their proceedings shall be conducted in the same manner as if they were appointed by the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, Maryland, in accordance with the charter provisions of said city.

Powers of.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall receive compensation for the services to be performed by them at the rate of two dollars per day for each day actually employed; provided, however, that the total compensation of each Commissioner so acting shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five dollars, and said Commissioners shall further employ a competent surveyor or civil engineer to make the surveys and estimates of said work and fix his compensation therefor.

Compensation