

same as other laborers of the corporation are paid, until the fine and costs be cancelled; and, provided, that any party feeling aggrieved by the decision of the said police justice, can take an appeal to the Circuit Court for Washington County, but said appeal must be prayed within ten days after the decision of the said police justice.

May appeal to
Circuit Court
within certain
time.

Sec. 410. The Burgess and Commissioners, or a majority of them, may appoint a bailiff for said town, who shall have the same general peace powers as a constable of Washington County. He shall have authority to arrest all persons found by him violating any ordinances of the corporation or on warrant of the police justice, and shall be allowed the same costs as constables are allowed for similar services. They may also allow him such salary for the performance of such other duties as may be assigned him, and required at his hands as in their judgment may be just and equitable.

May appoint a
bailiff for said
town.
