

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

them, according to such rules as may be adopted by the by-laws of said corporation; and the board of directors may meet as often as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of the corporation.

Authority to hold an exhibition of art. etc.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the corporation hereby formed shall have power, and it is hereby authorized to hold an exposition of arts, industries, manufactures, and the products of the said mine and sea in the City of Baltimore, and maintain the same for a period of not less than one week, nor more than one month during the said year of 1900; to fix admission fees and dispose of privileges of every character upon its grounds; to establish and maintain hotels, restaurants, amusements, or any species of entertainments which the board of directors may deem proper; to lay tracks, run cars, and to establish an electric-lighting plant upon its grounds; to allot space for exhibitors, prepare a classification of exhibits, determine the place and scope of the exhibition, appoint judges and examiners for the exposition and award premiums, if any.

For preservation of order.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of preserving order in and around the grounds of said corporation, the Board of Police Commissioners of Baltimore City, upon application of the association, may appoint such number of policemen as they may deem fit, and shall issue to each of said persons a commission for such period as they may deem proper, to be recorded in the offices of the Secretary of such board, and revocable at the pleasure of the board.

Policemen shall take oath.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That every such policeman, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe, before the Secretary of the Board of Police Commissioners, the oath or affirmation prescribed by the Sixth Section of the First Article of the Constitution, to be recorded in said office.

Powers of.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, Every policeman who has been thus qualified shall be a conservator of the peace, possessing throughout the corporate limits of the city of Baltimore all the common law and statutory police powers and authority of constables, policemen and other peace officers.

Compensation

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the compensation of every such officer shall be paid by the said association, and he shall not be entitled to any public compensation.

Power to adopt by-laws, rules and regulations

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the directors of said corporation shall have full power to adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the direction and management of said corporation as may in their judgment be necessary for the pur-