

15. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have power to pass ordinances requiring all circus or theatrical performances, shows, plays and public entertainments for which an admission fee is charged, to take out a license before giving an exhibition in said town, and to fix the cost of said license; and shall have power to enact ordinances for the regulation of pawnbrokers, peddlers of nostrums, notions, patents, secret or pretended inventions, and remedies on the streets, alleys or sidewalks of said town; provided, that the Chesapeake Beach Railway Company and the Chesapeake Beach Hotel Company, and either of them, shall have the right to grant privileges for all such exhibitions and other forms of amusement for the entertainment of passengers or guests, free from any license charge whatsoever by said Commissioners.

Power to pass Ordinances requiring Licenses.

16. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners may provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person violating any town ordinance, when in the judgment of the Mayor or of any constable or police officer of the town, the delay incident to the issuing of a warrant would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or to the lives, limbs or property of its inhabitants or others; and if it shall appear that any person is so intoxicated as to render it unsafe to permit him to drive or ride through the streets of said town, shall arrest the offender and provide for the custody of the horse or horses, vehicle or vehicles, ridden or driven by such persons, in some place of safety until such offender or offenders shall become sober; and the said Commissioners shall subject the property so taken and deposited to the payment of all costs of the proceedings and the keeping of the said property until the same be released according to law.

May arrest without warrant.

17. And be it enacted, That the bailiff and the other officers of the peace appointed by the said Commissioners under the powers conferred by this Act are hereby vested with the same power and authority as any constable or police officer may now have under the laws of this State, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the said Commissioners may provide.

Powers of bailiffs and other officers.

18. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall have the power to levy and collect taxes in said town, not exceeding in any one year one and a-half cents on the dollar, on all assessable property of the said town, on the same basis of assessment as the said property is now or may hereafter be assessed for State and county purposes; provided, that all property in said corporate limits used only for agricultural purposes shall only be assessed as such agricultural property, and not as town lots;

Levy and collect taxes.
