

by it, as many licenses to sell such liquors as may be required, and for such purposes they shall certify to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Calvert County the number of licenses so required, and the location of the premises in which each and every of such licenses is to be used, together with the name of the owner or lessee thereof, if any. The clerk of said court shall thereupon issue to said Chesapeake Beach Hotel Company, or to the several lessees, the number of licenses designated, upon the payment of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for each and every annual license; and all such licenses shall expire upon the first day of the following May. Licenses shall be granted for a fractional part of any year, beginning with the date of application and ending on the first day of the following May. For each fractional part of a year a proportional part of said sum of two hundred and fifty dollars shall be paid. The whole of the money received by the Clerk of said Circuit Court for the licenses aforesaid shall be paid over quarterly by said Clerk to the State, as other license moneys are paid, as now provided by law, and when so paid over, the Comptroller of the Treasury shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer in favor of the County Commissioners of Calvert County for all of said license fee except the proportion of such licenses as are due the State, in conformity to the provisions of Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws, or any amendments thereto for similar licenses, to be by said Commissioners applied to the permanent improvements of public roads in said county. Any person or persons or corporation who shall violate any provisions of this Act, relating to the sale of liquors, wines, cordials or beer, shall be subjected to the same penalties for first and subsequent convictions as provided by the Public General Law for similar offences. All licenses herein provided for shall be revoked by said Commissioners if minors are permitted to frequent or loiter about the places so licensed, or disreputable or disorderly persons are permitted to make the same places of customary visitation or resort. It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Act to sell, barter or give intoxicating liquor to any intoxicated or disorderly person, or to any minor, except upon the written order of his or her parent or guardian; or to any person whatsoever between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock in the morning, and all places where intoxicating liquors of any description are kept for sale shall be closed between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock in the morning, and shall not be opened between such hours for any purpose whatsoever; but any such licensee may sell all such spirituous and
