

137. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables in Baltimore County, that is to say: ^{Appointment of Justices of the Peace and Constables.} For election district number one, eight justices of the peace and four constables; for election district number two, five justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number three, eight justices of the peace and four constables; for election district number four, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number five, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number six, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number seven, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eight, six justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number nine, eleven justices of the peace and five constables, one of whom shall reside in Towson; for election district number ten, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eleven, nine justices of the peace and six constables; for election district number twelve, six justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number thirteen, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number fourteen, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fifteen, seven justices of the peace and three constables; but the County Commissioners may, in their discretion, upon the expiration of the terms of the constables who are in office at the time of the passing of this Act, appoint a less number of constables for any election district than the number hereinbefore named; provided, that there shall always be at least one constable in each of said election districts.

138. It shall be the duty of the Governor, after the appointment of the justices of the peace provided for in the foregoing section, to select from the justices of the peace so appointed one justice of the peace to sit at each of the following station houses in Baltimore County, to wit: At Canton, Twelfth District; at St. Denis and Mt. Winans, Thirteenth District. Each justice so selected shall keep his office at the station house for which he was appointed, and shall attend at such station house every day (Sundays excepted) at least from the hours of 9 o'clock A.M. until 12 o'clock M., and from 3 o'clock P.M. until 5 o'clock P.M., and shall also attend at his said station house at such other hours and times as he may be required so to do by the County Commissioners or by the State's Attorney for Baltimore County. When any such justice appointed to sit at any station house shall designate any other justice of the peace to act for him in his absence it ^{Appointment of Justices for District station houses.}