

ried out of the limits of said county, and shall pay a fine of one dollar for each and every rabbit shot, killed, caught or taken contrary to the foregoing section; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, the remainder of said fine imposed shall be paid to the Board of County School Commissioners of Anne Arundel County for the use of the public schools in said county, and on failure to pay said fine and costs, shall be committed to the House of Correction or the county jail for ten days, in the discretion of the justice trying the case.

Unlawful for non-residents
to hunt or kill
game.

Sec. 81. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona-fide resident of Anne Arundel County to shoot, kill, catch, or in any way entrap or destroy any partridge, quail, woodcock, pheasant, rabbit or any kind of game in said county at any time, and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of Anne Arundel County shall be fined not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, and on failure to pay said fine and costs shall be committed to the House of Correction for not less than five days nor more than two months, in the discretion of the justice trying the case; one-half of the said fine shall be paid to the informer, and the remainder of said fines imposed shall be paid to the Board of County School Commissioners of Anne Arundel County for the use of the public schools in said county, and in addition to said fine shall in every case have the gun and gaming apparatus in his possession at the time of the violation of this section confiscated and sold by judgment of the justice before whom he is tried, and the money arising from such sale shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, after having deducted therefrom the costs of such proceedings of condemnation and sale, to be by them applied to the public road fund of the district of the said county wherein said violation did occur; provided that any landowner may extend the privilege of killing said game upon his own land to whomsoever he may.

Evidence of violation.

Sec. 82. The possession by any person within said county of any of the birds mentioned in Sections seventy-nine or eighty, or any rabbit at any time in which the shooting, trapping or killing is prohibited by said sections, or the selling or exposing or offering for sale any of the birds mentioned in the foregoing sections, shall be prima-facie evidence of the violation thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1900.