

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said bonds, when issued, shall be sold at the court-house door, in the city of Annapolis, by the City Finance Commission and the Finance Committee of the Permanent Improvement Commission of Annapolis, said bonds to be sold to the highest bidder or bidders, in such series and for such length of time, not exceeding fifty years, as the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis and the Permanent Improvement Commission of said city may determine, and the proceeds thereof to be deposited in the Farmers' National Bank of Annapolis, in the name of the said Finance Commission and the Finance Committee of the Permanent Improvement Commission, subject to the joint order of the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of said city and said Permanent Improvement Commission.

How bonds shall be sold.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That before the issuance of said bonds the question of the issuance of said bonds shall be submitted to a vote of the duly registered voters and taxpayers of the City of Annapolis, at a special election to be held in said city at the Assembly Rooms, on the second Monday of May, nineteen hundred; and the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of said city shall appoint the necessary judges and clerks and shall furnish the necessary ballots for said election; said ballots shall be of plain white paper, and shall have printed upon the face a distinct reference to this Act and to the ordinance hereinafter required to be passed by the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of said city, and upon said ballots there shall be ruled a line of sufficient length to give a voter a space to write upon said ballots, "For City Bonds" or "Against City Bonds."

Submitted to registered voters. Special election.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That at said election any duly registered voter or taxpayer of said city shall be entitled to vote and to receive one official ballot, and immediately upon receipt of same shall retire alone to one of the voting booths and prepare the ballot, as follows: A person desiring to vote for the issuance of such bonds shall, with an indelible pencil to be furnished for that purpose, write upon said ballot, "For City Bonds," and if desirous of voting against the issuance of bonds, shall write upon said ballot, "Against City Bonds." Any taxpayer of the city who shall declare to the judges of said election that he or she is unable to write, or that by reason of physical infirmity he or she is unable to prepare the ballot, shall be entitled to call two of the judges to go into the booth and assist in preparing the ballot by one of the judges writing upon the same the words indicating the way

How voting shall be conducted.