

or transporting or having the same sent or transported beyond the limits of said county, under a penalty of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every violation of this section; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the barter and sale of such game for home consumption only by and between residents of said county within the limits of said county.

Shall not hunt
foxes except at certain times.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful to hunt for foxes, or pursue them with dogs between March 10th and November 1st in each and every year; and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to a fine of not less than five and not more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense.

Fines and penalties.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That all violations of the provisions of the various sections of this Act shall be deemed misdemeanors, and the fines and penalties imposed thereby shall be collected by prosecutions before any justice of the peace for Somerset County, with right of appeal to the Circuit Court thereof, and the defendant or defendants in such prosecutions, in default of the payment of said fines and penalties, shall be committed to jail for thirty days; and all fines collected by said court or any justice of the peace for said county, upon prosecutions as aforesaid, shall be paid in full to the party who informs against the offender or offenders and secures his or their conviction; but all money received by the clerk of the Circuit Court as license fees from non-residents shall be turned over to the school fund of said county.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of any constable of said county, or game warden thereof, to arrest any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1900.

CHAPTER 204.

AN ACT to pay the School Commissioners of Garrett County a sum of money out of the State school-tax.

WHEREAS, In view of the pressure of the present apportionment specially upon Garrett County of the State school-fund, and her inability, without large increase of county taxation, to keep open her schools for more than four or five