

VIOLATIONS OF ORDINANCES—HOW PUNISHED.

Sec. 195. Said Mayor and Common Council may establish and maintain a town prison, and may confine therein all persons convicted of violations of their ordinances in default of the payment of the fines imposed for such violations, or may, at their option, confine such person in the county jail at the expense of said town, or they may require such person in default in the payment of fines to work out such fines and costs upon the streets or other improvements of said town, such persons to be allowed as a credit on such fines and costs the same wages as are paid other employees of said city for the same work.

Penalty for violation of ordinances.

FINES, ETC., HOW RECOVERED.

Sec. 195A. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter, or for the violation of any ordinance of said town, shall be recoverable in the name of the Mayor and Common Council of Union Bridge before such justice of the peace of the State of Maryland residing in said town, as may be elected as police magistrate for said town by said Mayor and Common Council and no other as small debts, and shall be paid to the Mayor and Common Council for the use of said town.

Fines, etc.
How recovered.

POWER TO EXEMPT MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISES FROM TAXATION.

Sec. 196. Said Mayor and Common Council shall have the power to make contracts exempting from city taxation the real and personal property or capital stock of any manufacturing company or enterprise desiring to locate in said town, and as an inducement to the same to locate therein; provided, that such contract to exempt the same shall be limited as to time, and shall not exceed ten years.

Tax exemptions.

Sec. 196A. The Mayor of the town, by virtue of his office for municipal purposes and preserving the peace, shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace.

Sec. 197. Whenever any person owning land adjacent to the corporate limits of the town shall desire that said limits be so extended as to embrace his lands, he shall express the same to the Mayor and Common Council to the said town by petition, and if any of the said land is laid off in lots, streets and alleys, a majority of those persons owning said lots, bounding on one or more streets, may express by petition to the Mayor and Common Council as aforesaid their desire to have said lots, streets and alleys embraced in the corporate limits of the town.

Petition to extend limits of the town.