Money from
sale of bonds.
How
disposed of.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the money so arising from the sale of said bonds, which bonds shall be sold either at auction or by sealed bids, after due advertisement thereof, to the highest responsible bidder, and shall not be sold for less than par value, shall be paid to the Commissioners of Hyattsville, in their corporate capacity, and be by them deposited immediately in the name of the Commissioners of Hyattsville in some safe and well-known banking institution in the City of Washington, and in case they fail or omit so to deposit said money, as afore directed, they each shall be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction of such offense be fined in such sum or be imprisoned, or both fined and imprisoned, as the court may see fit.

Disposition of funds realized
from sale of bonds.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the fund realized from the sale of the bonds, or any of them, shall be applied to the purposes of this Act and no other, and shall be paid out by check or warrant on the order of the Commissioners, drawn by the treasurer and signed by him, the treasurer, and attested by the clerk of the Commissioners and endorsed by the holder of the warrant. The said Commissioners are authorized and empowered to sell so many of such bonds and no more as shall realize sufficient money to pay the contract price of said water works and such other price for modifications, changes or enlargements as may develop, if at all, in the construction and establishment of such works as may be first permitted and accepted by the Commissioners and agreed upon between them and the contractor in writing, provided, the sum total of all contracts and expenditures shall not exceed $3,000.00. And the bonds not sold and issued shall be cancelled, as aforesaid, and be publicly destroyed, and an entry in ink to that effect and of the date thereof being made in the books afore-
