

hundred and ninety-nine. And on all property that in due course of things may hereafter be added to said list. The said assessors in the discharge of their duties may administer oaths to parties to be assessed, and in the case of corporate bodies or their associations to their officers, and they may require such parties or officers to make and render a list of all the assessable property owned by said parties under oath.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That a sub-section be and the same is hereby added to said Section sixty-five of said Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws, to be in these words, and to follow said section, and to be designated Sub-section A to Section 65, to wit: "Sub-section A to Section 65—The Commissioners of Cambridge." First: For the purpose of paying divers debts and liabilities which have heretofore been contracted on the part of the town. Second: After all and every debt has been paid, then for the erection of an addition to the engine house, and then, after the debts and erection of addition to engine house have been provided for, the balance for making sewers, are authorized and empowered to issue bonds the aggregate amount of which shall not exceed ten thousand dollars, of such form and denomination as the said commissioners may direct; provided that no bond for less than one hundred dollars shall be issued. The said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent. per year. The said interest shall be made payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each and every year. The first installment of interest shall be payable on the first day of January, A. D. 1901, when whatever interests has accrued shall be paid. The said bonds shall be exempt from county and municipal taxation, and they shall be divided into two classes, one-half of the whole amount issued shall become due and payable ten years from the first day of July, A. D. 1900, and the remaining half shall be payable twenty years from the first day of July, 1900. And the proviso inserted in the bonds which become payable twenty years from the first day of July, A. D. 1900, that such bonds may be paid off by the commissioners at any time after ten years from the said first day of July, A. D. 1900, if the commissioners so please. The commissioners shall pay the interest on said bonds out of the annual taxes levied for corporate purposes, and they shall annually set apart out of money received from the County Commissioners, or out of some other funds belonging to the commissioners of said town, for corporate purposes, at least the sum of five issue bonds.

Authority to

Bonds to bear
interest.

When payable