

right of condemnation hereby granted to said company, or that it may otherwise have under the General Laws shall not be construed to authorize it to acquire in that way any of the lands, rights, privileges or property in Cecil or Harford Counties, in the State of Maryland, used, owned, occupied, appropriated or contracted for by either of the Conowingo Bridge Company, the Susquehanna Electric Power Company, or the Susquehanna Construction Company of Baltimore City, except so far as may be required in order to back the water of the Susquehanna river to a height of at least four feet above the crest of the present main dam of the said Susquehanna Power and Paper Company, and as much more as may be required to make the crest of said main dam level with an elevation forty-two feet above mean tide, to be established from the bench mark of the Columbia and Port Deposit Railway on the southwest abutment of the county bridge at Conowingo.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That said company is hereby authorized to exercise its powers and franchises, construct, maintain, supervise and operate its works, plants, or any part thereof, distribute and dispose of its electricity and power, or any part thereof, for application to any useful purpose, and generally transact its business, or any part thereof, in the City of Baltimore, but the assent and approval of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City shall be obtained before using the streets or highways of said city, either the surface or ground beneath the same, and said Mayor and City Council are hereby fully authorized to pass an ordinance or ordinances giving their assent and approval, and designating the manner of using the said streets and highways; and that in the exercise of the powers of condemnation by said company for the acquisition, use and occupation of land or property, or any easement therein, or right appurtenant thereto, or materials for the uses, objects and purposes of the company within the City of Baltimore in the manner provided in Section three of this Act. The Superior Court of Baltimore City, the Court of Common Pleas, and the Baltimore City Court, and the clerks thereof, and the sheriff of said city, and the jurors summoned by him from the inhabitants of said city, and any justice of the peace of said city, and all parties interested in the exercise of said powers of condemnation shall, respectively, have the same powers and rights which are conferred under Section three of this Act upon the Circuit Court of said counties and the clerks thereof, and the sheriffs of said counties, and the jurors summoned by them from the inhabitants of said county, and the justices of

Authorized to exercise its
powers and franchises.

Powers and
rights of jurors of
condemnation.