

Railroad; thence with the eastern boundary of said railway right of way southerly to the Alexandria junction of said railroad; thence, with the eastern boundary of the right of way of said Alexandria branch road, to the centre of the eastern branch of the Potomac River; thence, with the centre of said eastern branch, to the place of beginning.

SEC. 4. The government of said town shall be, after the next election, vested in a Mayor and six Councilmen, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 5. The male citizens of said town, of the age of twenty-one and upwards, who shall possess the qualification of legally-registered voters of the State, and who shall have resided in said town for the space of six months next preceding the first Monday in May, nineteen hundred, shall elect on that day, at such places as shall be selected for the holding of elections, one person, a legal voter of said town, who has resided therein for two years at least next preceding the election, to be Mayor of said town, and two persons in each of the wards herein provided for, who shall possess the same qualifications and be residents of the wards for which they shall be chosen by the voters of said wards to be Common Councilmen of the said town; and annually thereafter on the first Monday in May, such citizens shall select one person having the qualifications above described, to be Mayor; provided, that one such Councilman shall at the first election held under the provisions of this section be elected for the term of two years, such person to be voted for upon a ticket to be designated, "To serve for two years," in each ward, and one person at said election shall be elected from each ward to serve for one year; and annually thereafter one person shall be elected in each ward, having the qualification above described, to serve for two years as Councilman. The said town of Hyattsville shall be divided into three wards, as follows: Ward number one shall embrace all of said town lying south and east of the centre line of Maryland avenue, commonly known as the Washington and Baltimore turnpike, and south and east of the Washington Branch of the Baltimore Railroad, as now established in its line through said town. For wards numbers two and three, the remaining part of Hyattsville, shall be divided into two sections by a general division line, beginning at the junction of the centre line of Johnson avenue at its intersection with the centre line of Maryland avenue, and running thence along the centre line of Johnson avenue to the centre line of Wine avenue, thence along the centre line of Wine avenue to the centre line of Ralston

Election of Mayor and Councilmen.

Terms of office

Divided into wards.
Division and limits.