

tice of the peace to the constable of the sixth district on the oath or affirmation of any other constable or on the oath or affirmation of any police officer of the City of Annapolis; and when any warrant is issued by any justice of the peace on the complaint, oath or affirmation of any constable, and such charge shall be dismissed or the defendant acquitted, no fee in such cases shall be allowed by the County Commissioners, or the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of Annapolis, to any officer serving such process.

Constable of Sixth District.
Compensation

The constable of the sixth district of said county, for the services of all process and summonses for witnesses made by him in criminal cases, shall receive from the County Commissioners the sum of fifty dollars per month, payable in cash or by levy equivalent to cash on the day of his making report, as provided in the preceding sections; provided, that if the amount of the constable's fees for services of process by him, as may appear by his report and the report of the justice of the peace, is less than fifty dollars, then and in that case such constable shall only receive the amount of fees appearing by said reports to have been earned by him. The constables,
