CHAPTER 288.

AN ACT to amend the Charter of Bethel Cemetery, as incorporated by Chapter five hundred and sixteen of the Laws of eighteen hundred and forty-nine.

Bethel Cemetery.
Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That C. S. Ellison, Joshua Clayton, J. H. Brooks, J. R. Kirk, John Davidson and J. S. Hopper and all others who are now or hereafter may become owner or possessors of burial lots in the cemetery aforesaid, be and they are hereby ordained and declared to be a body politic and corporate by the name and style of the Bethel Cemetery, and by that name and style they and their successors and assigns shall and may have continued succession and be capable to sue in any court or courts of law and equity, to purchase, take, hold and enjoy, in fee, the aforesaid lot or parcel of land, not exceeding ten acres, goods, chattels and effects of every nature and kind, which may be necessary to carry out the purposes for which this incorporation is granted, and to sell and convey burial lots therein, subject to the provisions of this charter, and to such control over the same by this corporation, as is herein reserved, and the said corporation may have a common seal, ordain by-laws for its own government, not repugnant to the laws and Constitution of the United States or of this State, and shall enjoy all the franchises incident to a corporation, but no banking powers, nor shall the corporation have power to alien the lands aforesaid, or any part thereof, nor to change or encumber the same, or any part thereof, by judgments, mortgages or otherwise, except as hereinbefore mentioned.

Management of the corporation
by directors.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the business and management of the corporation shall be done and conducted by five directors, who shall be lotholders in said cemetery, and shall be elected at annual meeting of the lot-owners,
