

and every annual meeting of the lot-owners lay before such meeting a full statement of the concerns of the corporation, and the books of the corporation shall at all times be open to the inspection of the lotholders.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons who shall wilfully do any injury to the cemetery aforesaid, the buildings, fences or fixtures thereof, or to the monuments, trees, shrubbery therein, or commit any trespass thereon, shall forfeit and pay to the corporation for any such injury or trespass the sum of three dollars; and for wilfully doing the same injury or trespass, or any injury or trespass of the same kind the second time, the sum of five dollars; but in every such case the corporation may elect to proceed at law for damages; and if any person or persons shall put or place, or cause to be put or placed, any matter or thing in the cemetery contrary to the regulations thereof, and shall not remove the same upon request and pay all damages, he, she or they shall be deemed a trespasser or trespassers, and proceeded against accordingly, all of which may be sued for and recovered as other debts of like character and amount are recovered in this State.

Wilful injury to cemetery.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the president and managers of said corporation shall cause to be made out a neat and substantial plat of the ground in said cemetery, a record of which shall be made in the book or books of said corporation, and a copy thereof left with the clerk of the Cecil County Court, to be recorded among the land records of said county; and whenever any person or persons shall purchase one or more burial lots, it shall be the duty of the said corporation to cause a minute of said sale and purchase to be entered in some suitable place in their said book or books.

Shall make plat of the ground, etc.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said directors, with the consent and approbation of the lotholders, may, after the first sale of lots to be made as hereinbefore directed, allot and lay off such part of the unsold ground, as they think proper, for a strangers' or public burying place, and make such rules and regulations in relation thereto as they shall deem proper for the interest of the corporation.

Public burying place.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this is hereby declared a public Act.

Approved April 5, 1900.