

Calvert County, and for the payment of the bonds and the interest thereon in conformity to the provisions of this Act, and discharge all other duties herein imposed upon him; and for the purpose of making said disbursements he shall attend at the court house during the sessions of the Circuit Court; he shall keep a complete set of books showing the receipt of all moneys received by him as treasurer for the purposes of this Act and the disbursements of the same, and he shall, at the first meeting of the Board of County Commissioners after each term of the Circuit Court for said county, make a full and detailed report, and exhibit to the said board his receipt and disbursements, together with his vouchers therefor; and on failure so to do for sixty days after the adjournment of said court, he shall be subjected to the penalties prescribed in Section two of this Act.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same so far as thus inconsistent are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1900.

CHAPTER 334.

AN ACT to add an additional section to Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Crimes and Punishments," to come in after Section two hundred and eight, subtitle "Minors, Care and Protection of," and to be known as Section 208A.

Minors.
Care and protection of.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person having in his custody or control a child under the age of fourteen years, who shall in any way dispose of it with a view to its being employed as an acrobat, or a gymnast, or a contortionist, or a circus rider, or a rope walker, or in any exhibition of like dangerous character, or as a beggar or mendicant, or street singer, or street musician; or any person who shall take, receive, hire, employ, use, exhibit or have in custody any child under the age last named for any of the purposes herein enumerated shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and when convicted thereof shall be subject to punishment by fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding ninety days in jail, or both.

Unlawful to employ minors
as acrobats,
circus riders,
etc.

Penalty
for violation.

Approved April 5, 1900.