

Third Ward.—This ward begins at the foot of Gay street; then with Court lane to High street; then with High street to Pine street; then with Pine street to Muir street; then with Muir street to the middle of Cambridge Creek, and down the middle of Cambridge Creek to intersect the first line of first ward and therewith to the place of beginning.

Fourth Ward.—This ward begins at the foot of Muir street; then with Muir street to Pine street; then with Pine street and Pine street extended to the southern limits; thence with the southern and eastern limits to the foot of Cemetery avenue and to the middle of Cambridge Creek; then down the middle of Cambridge Creek to opposite Muir street; thence to the place of beginning.

Fifth Ward.—This ward begins at the middle of Cambridge Creek on the line from the foot of Cemetery avenue, parallel with Maryland avenue in East Cambridge; thence with said line to the stone on the Country road to East Cambridge; then with the extreme eastern boundary line to the Choptank River, and out into the said river in the same direction to the middle thereof; thence down the middle of said river to intersect the line of the first ward; then with said line to the mouth of Cambridge Creek; thence up said creek with the middle thereof to the place of beginning.

MUNICIPAL RECORDS.

Sec. 44. The Commissioners shall provide and keep three series or classes of Record Books: First, the Minute Books; second, the Ordinance Books, and third, the General Record Books. These books shall be made with strong bindings, shall be of uniform size and of substantial paper. They shall keep an assessment book, and they may keep such other books as they may deem right.

The minute books shall contain memoranda and entries showing the proceedings of the Commissioners as they occur. The minute books heretofore used, as far as they have been preserved, shall be numbered in the order of their use, and new minute books shall be added, as the same are needed. On the first day of May, A. D., 1900, a new minute book shall be provided, and it shall be designated "Cambridge Minute Book, new series, Liber 1," and all subsequent minute books shall be designated in a similar manner, except that the liber shall be rightly numbered. When an ordinance is passed, the minute book shall show its number and title, and shall set forth the number of Commissioners who voted in favor of its enactment, and the number who voted

Municipal records.

Cambridge Minute Book. Shall contain proceedings of the Commissioners