

violating said ordinance by erecting buildings of wood in parts or sections thereof where the same are not allowed under said ordinance.

(19.) To require by ordinance that every party or person who wishes or proposes to erect any buildings in said town, to make a written application to the Commissioners for a permit to erect the same before beginning work thereon, and in such application to set forth the location, character, materials, purposes and uses of said building, and to obtain before beginning work on the same a permit, printed or written, signed by the town clerk, on the order of the Commissioners, and entered at length in the minute book, and by ordinance to prescribe penalties for erecting or beginning to erect buildings without such permit.

Permits to erect buildings

(20.) To provide by ordinance for taking down and removing any building of wood erected in any part or section of the town in violation of an ordinance wherein the erection of buildings of wood are forbidden, and for taking down and removing any building erected without a permit first had and obtained from the Commissioners.

Removal of buildings of wood.

(21.) To prevent by ordinance breaches of the day called Sunday so as to forbid traffic, barter and sale in all commodities except medicines, and to prohibit gambling, unseemly amusements, games, exhibitions and entertainments, and to prescribe penalties for violations of the ordinance or ordinances passed in the matter of the premises.

Sunday breaches of the day.

(22.) To provide, by ordinance, for establishing a building line for the erection of buildings on the streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares of said town, or by order in the case of particular buildings.

Building line.

(23.) To restrain all disorders, to prevent the firing of fire-arms, guns, pistols, fire-crackers and all other explosives, whatever be their form or device, within the corporate limits, to prevent fast riding on horseback or on bicycle, to regulate the use of bicycle, to prevent fast driving in carriage, wagon or on any vehicle, to restrain whatever produces unreasonable annoyance or inconvenience to persons while passing along the streets and thoroughfares of the town, or that subjects them to the risk and danger of injury or harm.

Restrain all disorders, firing of pistols etc.

(24.) To order the taking down and removal of any house or building deemed dangerous and unsafe, and to direct the taking down of the same without delay.