

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

other license for omnibuses or other vehicles to carry passengers in the town as aforesaid.

Horses and mules. (18.) All venders or dealers in horses or mules, whether the parties be residents or otherwise; provided, that the proprietor of a livery stable may sell the same without any additional license.

Auction of horses, etc. (19.) The promoters of any public auction of horses, mules, other goods and chattels.

(20.) All undertakers.

Newspapers. (21.) The proprietors and publishers of any newspaper, the same parties to procure but one license, though they may issue a daily and weekly paper.

Stallions. (22.) All stallions which stand within the corporate limits.

Horse and carriage or wagon for pleasure. (23.) All persons who keep a horse and carriage or wagon for pleasure; provided that for any team not more than one dollar per year be charged for license; provided, that except in the case of proprietors or managers of theatres who provide horses for performances, and also except circuses, not more than ten dollars shall be charged for any license, authorized hereunder.

Proviso.

Theatres.

The proprietors or managers of theatres may take out a license authorizing them to hold as many performances in a year as they please, in one and the same building, and not more than twenty-five dollars shall be charged for any such yearly license; provided, that no performance, exhibition or amusement shall be allowed in any theatre on Sunday.

CIDER PERMITS.

Cider permits. 76. Every applicant to the Commissioners for a permit, as required by law, to sell cider, shall, on receiving the same, pay to the Town Clerk and Treasurer the sum of forty dollars, and no permit shall be granted until said sum is paid; provided, that this payment shall not exempt such applicants from paying for the traders' license, or for the cider license to be obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court, as already required by law.

Proviso.

BOARDS OF HEALTH.

Boards of health. 77. The Commissioners shall be and constitute the local board of health for the town, and they shall be authorized to form and appoint a sub-board of health, consisting of five members, to assist them in the discharge of their duties. One of the sub-board, at least, shall be a regular practicing physician, and a resident of Cambridge. The Commissioners may provide by ordinance such measures as will enable the board and sub-board of health to safeguard the health of the town.