

exceed five thousand dollars. Whenever they make a levy they shall do so, item by item, specifying the department for which the levy is made and the amount to be expended therein.

When taxes shall be due.

158B. Taxes shall be due as soon as they are levied, and if not paid on or before the first day of September of the year in which they are levied shall bear interest from that date at the rate of six per centum per annum, and at any time after the first day of February next succeeding the date of levy, and not before, payment may be enforced by sale as herein provided. On all taxes paid after the levy and before the first day of September following, discounts will be paid as follows: If paid in May, five per cent; if paid in June, four per cent.; if paid in July, three per cent., and if paid in August, two per cent.

Discounts.

Compensation of treasurer.

159. The said Treasurer shall receive as compensation for his services under the provisions of this Act and any amendments thereof an annual salary of four hundred and eighty dollars, to be paid monthly, and such commission as may accrue under this Act.

159A. Nothing in this Article shall be taken or understood as impairing the duties and obligations of collectors of city taxes heretofore appointed in regard to the levies now in their hands for collection, but such collectors shall proceed to complete such collections under the existing provisions of law as fully as if this Act had not passed.

Registration of voters.

163. The Clerk to the Council or his authorized deputy, appointed by the Mayor, shall sit at the City Hall on the first and second Saturday in December, in the year 1900, between the hours of 9 o'clock A.M. and 3 o'clock P.M., and between the hours of 6 o'clock and 9 o'clock P.M., for the purpose of making a new registration or lists of voters to be used at subsequent elections; and on the first Saturday in December in each year thereafter, between the hours above named, he shall sit for the purpose of entering additional names upon said lists, and it shall be the duty of said Clerk to enter in alphabetical order upon a book provided for the purpose the names of all persons appearing before him at the times above specified, and requesting to be registered; provided, he shall be satisfied by the oath of said person, or otherwise, that he is a citizen of the United States, above the age of twenty-one, and that he will have resided in said city for at least one year previous to the next ensuing election, and that he possesses all the other qualifications required of voters by the Act of incorporation of said city, and the additions and Qualification of voters.