

amendments thereto; and the clerk shall have power to administer the oath required by this section. On the Monday following the closing of the registration the City Council shall revise the list, striking therefrom the names of all persons who are dead, or who have removed from the city, or who have otherwise disqualified as voters; and within one week from the day above specified they shall publish by hand-bills, to be set up at the City Hall, and three other public places, a list of names that have been stricken from the registration book, as well as a list of the new names added thereto.

Any one considering himself aggrieved by the Clerk in refusing to register his name as aforesaid, or by the City Council in striking out his name as aforesaid, shall have the right of a hearing before the Council, which shall have power to determine the matter, subject to an appeal to the Circuit Court. The Clerk, by hand-bills and by advertisement inserted in two of the newspapers published in said city, shall give at least two weeks' previous notice of the time and place of the sitting for the registration of voters, and at the same time he shall give notice of the time and place of the sitting of the City Council for the review of the registration-list, and of the date and place for holding the next municipal election, and a list of the offices to be filled. The Mayor and City Council may provide for an entire new registration as often as they deem proper.

Persons refused registration may appeal to Circuit Court.

Publish notice for registration of voters.

175. Whenever the Mayor and City Council shall, by ordinance, order the opening of a new street or alley, or the construction of any park, public square, sewer, water-works, gas-works, bridge, wharf or other public improvement, the Mayor shall, by and with the consent of the Council, appoint three of the legal voters and freeholders of the city not officeholders, who, together with the Mayor and City Attorney, shall constitute a commission to examine and report on the proposed improvement; and if the said commission, or a majority of them, shall certify to the Mayor and City Council that any land, building, stone, material or other property belonging to any person or corporation, or the removal thereof shall be necessary or convenient for the construction of the proposed improvement, then the Mayor and City Council may condemn such property, or may agree with the owner or owners thereof for the purchase, use, occupation or removal of the same, and if they cannot agree, or if the owner or owners, or any of them, be an infant, femme covert, who is not possessed of the property to her sole and separate use, or authorized to con-
