

23. Whenever the jurors for any term of any court in this State have been drawn as hereinbefore provided by this Article, and the business of said term has so far proceeded as that either the grand jury or the petit jury, or both the grand jury and the petit jury shall have been finally discharged, and by reason of any event or events happening before or after said final discharge, any criminal charge shall arise which the said court shall deem of sufficient importance to be investigated forthwith by the grand jury, and to be tried by a petit jury, the said court may, in its discretion, require the grand jury for said term, and the petit jury for said term, or either said grand jurors or said petit jurors, to be summoned to return to said court at such time as the court may direct; and in case any one of said jurors shall be unable to attend, for reasons which said court may deem satisfactory, the court shall proceed to fill the vacancy thus created as though said juror had not been finally discharged, and thereupon said court may proceed to investigate and try said criminal charge as fully and completely as though said grand or petit jurors, or either of them, had not been finally discharged for said term; and in counties where the Circuit Court holds non jury terms, the power of the court to require the return of the jurors aforesaid, and to hold a session of said adjourned jury term shall exist as though there were no such non-jury terms of said court, and the same had not intervened.

Authority to
summon jurors to return
after final discharge.

Fill vacancy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 6, 1900.

CHAPTER 63.

AN ACT to amend Section one of Chapter three hundred and sixty-nine of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1898, entitled an "Act to incorporate The Old Line Real Estate & Trust Co. of Baltimore City," and to repeal Sections two, three, four, six, eleven, twelve and thirteen of said Chapter, and to re-enact certain of those sections, with amendments, and to add certain additional sections to said Chapter, granting additional powers, to be known as Sections six A, six B, six C, ten A and ten B. And to ratify, make valid and confirm all operations and