

the clerk or one of his deputies, whom the said judge or judges shall designate, neither the one nor the other, who may be so required to act, to be present at the selection of the said list of one hundred and fifty names, to appear before him or them, and then and there in the presence of the said judge or judges and such other persons as may choose to be present to draw from the compartments in which said balls have been placed through the opening made by removing the sliding top thereof as will only conveniently admit the hand and without in any manner looking into said box, one by one forty-eight of said balls, and as each of said balls are drawn from said box, it shall be handed to the said judge or judges, who shall announce the number thereon, together with the name on the list of one hundred and fifty names corresponding to said number so drawn, and the said forty-eight names corresponding to the forty-eight numbers so drawn shall with said numbers be duly recorded by said judge or judges, or by the clerk in their presence, and under their direction in the order in which they shall be drawn, and thereupon the said judge or judges shall forthwith order a venire facias, as provided in said Article 51 of the Code of Public General Laws, and after the said forty-eight have been so drawn, and the numbers thereon and the names corresponding thereto shall have been recorded as herein provided, the judge or judges shall place the said forty-eight balls in the compartment of said box other than the one from which they were drawn, together with the certified list of one hundred and fifty names, and shall cause the said box to be closed and locked and kept, and only opened as provided for in Article 51 of the Code of Public General Laws; provided, however, that if for any of the reasons mentioned in Article 51 of the Code of Public General Laws, it shall become necessary to draw talesmen, or to fill vacancies the judge or judges shall draw from said box as many balls as may be necessary therefor, in the same manner as the original forty-eight were drawn.

When necessary to draw talesmen.

127 C. No person shall be drawn and summoned again as a juror in Garrett County until the expiration of two years from the term of court at which he last served.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved April 7, 1900.

CHAPTER 375.

AN ACT to provide for copying and recording marriage licenses in the Clerk's office of St. Mary's County, from 1794 to 1864.