

Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," subtitle "Wild Fowl," to read as follows:

Unlawful to shoot or kill by use of flashlight, within certain limits. Sec. 335. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to shoot or kill any wild ducks, geese, brant or swan between 7 o'clock P.M. and 5 o'clock A.M. from any boat or vessel with any gun of any size, by use of a flashlight, or any kind of a light, within one mile of the shore line of Middle and Lower Hooper's Island, Dorchester County.

Unlawful to catch or kill by use of nets, etc., within certain limits. Sec. 336. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to catch or kill at any time, by use of nets or other similar devices, any ducks, geese, brant or swan within one mile from the shore line of Middle and Lower Hooper's Island, Dorchester County.

Unlawful to shoot or kill on certain days within certain space. Sec. 337. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to shoot or kill any wild ducks, geese, brant or swan on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays within one mile of Middle and Lower Hooper's Island.

Fines and costs for violation. Sec. 338. Any person or persons violating the provisions of Sections 335, 336 and 337 of this Act, shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars and costs, and the money arising from said sale and fines, after deduction of legal costs of the justice or other tribunal before whom said offender or offenders shall be convicted, shall be divided and paid, one-half into the free school treasury of Dorchester County for the use of said school, and the other half to the person or persons prosecuting said offenders and securing their conviction; provided, nothing herein contained shall prevent any person or persons who may be aggrieved by the decision of the justice of the peace before whom said person or persons might appear, on the charge of violating either of the two of the aforesaid section, from appealing from the judgment of the said justice to the Circuit Court of Dorchester County, if such appeals are taken and satisfactory bond filed for prosecuting said appeal.

Right to appeal.

Unlawful for non residents to hunt without consent of owner. Sec. 339. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons not a bona fide resident or taxpayer of Dorchester County to shoot or kill any wild ducks, geese, brant or swan in the waters of this county within one mile of the shore line of middle and lower Hooper's Island without having obtained permission of the owner or owners of the land bordering on the waters where said person or persons desire to shoot. Any person not a taxpayer or bona fide resident convicted by any justice of the peace of the said county for shooting or killing
