

CHAPTER 8.

AN ACT supplementary to an Act, entitled, an "Act to incorporate the Home for the Aged of Frederick City," passed by the General Assembly of Maryland, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and known as Chapter eighty-seven of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of that year.

WHEREAS, Ann Grahame Ross, and others associated with her, all residents of Frederick County, State of Maryland, formed themselves into a society, or association, by the name of "The Home for the Aged of Frederick City," for the benevolent purpose of rendering charitable aid to aged persons, residents of Frederick County or elsewhere, and providing a home with the comforts thereof for such aged persons who might need the same, in accordance with the rules and regulations which said society or association might adopt, and for the purpose of carrying into effect their benevolent plan, prayed that trustees might be incorporated with power to receive, hold and dispose of contributions, donations, gifts, grants, devises and bequests of all kinds of property, estate and effects to a limited extent; and

Society for charitable aid,
Frederick co.

WHEREAS, By an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at its session of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and known as Chapter eighty-seven of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of that year, Charles W. Ross, William P. Maulsby, Jr., Henry Williams, George Markel, W. Irving Parsons and Edward Eichelberger, and their successors in office, elected in the manner therein provided, were incorporated and made a body politic by the corporate name of the "Trustees of the Home of the Aged of Frederick City," and by that name to have perpetual succession and be capable in law of receiving and holding in trust and of using and disposing of all kinds of gifts, grants, conveyances, donations, devises and bequests of estate, real, personal and mixed property and effects, not exceeding in amount one hundred thousand dollars; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly that the success of the said "The Home for the Aged of Frederick City" has far exceeded the expectations of its promoters and originators, and is engaged in a meritorious, charitable and benevolent work; and

WHEREAS, It is further represented to this General Assembly that the amount of money and property which said