

Shall appoint Constable in each district to inspect
licenses, etc.

Sec. 142. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners, on the last Tuesday in April in each year, to appoint one of the constables in each district of the county to inspect licenses in the district, and the constables so appointed shall visit every place of business in his district; the proprietors whereof are required to have licenses immediately before the May and December terms of the court, and shall require the proprietor of each place of business to produce a license, and, in case of refusal to produce the same, the constable shall arrest the proprietor so refusing and take him before a justice of the peace, who shall take recognizance from him, with security, to appear before the next term of court to answer the charge of selling without license; and if upon trial of such person so recognized he shall produce a license, the court may, in its discretion, cause the party indicted to pay the cost of the prosecution as a punishment for his refusal to produce the license when required by the constable; and the said constables shall return to the grand juries for the said terms of the Circuit Court correct lists of all the places of business in their respective districts, which lists shall contain the names of persons doing business at each place, the character of business, the date of the license, which shall include the year for which it is issued and the name therein; and in all cases of conviction for selling in said county without a license the constable informing against the person so convicted shall receive the informer's portion of the fine imposed, when his name is endorsed on the back of the indictment by the grand jury; each constable appointed by the County Commissioners as inspector of license shall receive from them a fee of ten cents for each license inspected by him on making affidavit that he has personally inspected said license.

Fees.
