sub-title "Election Districts," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

Sec. 72. The judges and clerks of election and registers of voters in said county shall each be entitled to the sum of three dollars per day for every election at which they shall respectively attend and act as judges or clerks or registers of voters, and for making returns of said elections; and the County Commissioners shall annually levy a sum sufficient to pay said judges and clerks and registers of voters, who shall be entitled to receive compensation for the time they actually have served, within ten days after Thursday next following evrey election, beginning with the year nineteen hundred, and continuing each year thereafter; or the County Commissioners may issue a certificate for the amount due each judge and clerk of election and register of voters in payment for their services, provided the interest or amount of discount be added to such certificate from the date of its issue to the time of its payment.

Judges and clerks of election and registers of voters.

Compensation

Sec. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1900.

CHAPTER 503.

AN ACT to incorporate "The Harford Electric Railway Company."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joseph B. Hanway, W. Boyd Bell, Richard Dallam, Philip H. Close and John P. Horsey and all other persons who may hereafter become stockholders in the company hereby incorporated, are hereby created a body corporate by the name of "The Harford Electric Railway Company," and by that name shall have perpetual succession with power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, and to make, have and use a common seal and change the same at pleasure, and shall have and enjoy and may exercise all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises incident and necessary to the purposes of the said corporation as created by this Act.

Harford Electric Railway Company. Incorporated.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of the said company shall consist of two hundred shares of the par value of fifty dollars each, aggregating ten thousand dollars, for which the incorporators hereinbefore named may receive subscriptions upon such terms as the majority of them may pre-

Capital stock.