

said district shall file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County a written application for a license, signed by such applicant or applicants, setting forth the full name or name of the applicant or applicants, together with the exact location in said district of the place where said liquors are to be sold, which application shall be endorsed with the written recommendation of at least twelve freeholders residing in said district, each of whom is assessed upon the tax books of said county with real estate at a valuation of not less than one thousand dollars. Second, and such applicant or applicants, or in event of such applicant being a body corporate, then its duly authorized agents at the time of making such application shall make oath before the said clerk that he, they or it will keep an orderly house; that no spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer will be sold at such place, bartered or given away, directly or indirectly, on the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, and that no such liquors will be at any time sold, bartered or given away, directly or indirectly, to any person under the age of twenty-one years, or to any person whose juvenile appearance would be sufficient to put the vender of such liquors upon inquiry.

Shall make oath, etc.

193A. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said clerk to issue a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors and lager beer to every applicant complying with the foregoing section and the provisions thereof upon the payment by such applicant to said clerk of the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars for said license, and one dollar as a fee to said clerk for issuing the same.

Clerk shall issue license.

Amount of 193B. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person, persons or body corporate engaged in selling liquors in said district under the provisions of the preceding sections to sell, barter, give away or otherwise dispose of any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer on or during the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon being convicted thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense, or by imprisonment in the House of Correction for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court, and the license issued to such party so convicted shall be deemed forfeited from the date of such conviction.

Unlawful to sell or give away liquor on Sunday.

193C. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person, persons or body corporate, engaged in selling liquors in said district under the provisions of the preceding section

Unlawful to sell, etc., to persons under certain age.