

to sell, barter, give away, or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, to any person under the age of twenty-one years any spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer, and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense, or by imprisonment in the House of Correction for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the Court, together with forfeiture of license from the date of such conviction; and the juvenile appearance of any person seeking to obtain such liquors or beer from any such dealer shall in the construction of this law be sufficient to put the vender of such liquor upon inquiry.

False statements of persons under age. 193D. And be it enacted, That any person under the age of twenty-one years who shall by misrepresentations of false statements as to his age obtain any spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer from any person, firm or body corporate licensed to sell liquors under this Act, and any person who shall obtain for a person under the age of twenty-one years from such licensed dealer such liquors with knowledge that the person for whom the same is obtained be a minor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars and costs, or shall be confined in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than sixty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Unlawful to sell, barter or dispose of, without license. 193E. And be it enacted, That if any person, firm, body corporate or druggist shall, without having first obtained the license provided for in Section 193 and 193A of this Article, sell or otherwise barter or dispose of, directly or indirectly, or take orders for the same to be delivered in the future, within the limits of said district, on and after the first Monday in May next, any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or other compounds or beverages producing intoxication, he, she or they shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense, or be imprisoned in the House of Correction for not less than three months nor more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court, and the person in possession of the premises, house or place at the time the violation occurred shall be deemed prima facie guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be subject to the same fines and penalties as the actual violator.