

prohibit the erecting and maintaining of hog-pens, slaughter-houses or other nuisances within the limits of said town under such penalties as they may prescribe; and they may impose and collect fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of ordinances passed and enacted by them, and may commit or cause to be committed all offenders against such ordinances to the county jail, until such fines, penalties and forfeitures be paid, with costs, but not exceeding thirty days.

Fines and penalties.

103. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the preceding section, and for the preservation of the peace, health, cleanliness and good order of the community, and for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens of said town, and to suppress, abate and discontinue, or to cause to be suppressed, abated or discontinued, all nuisances and obstructions within the corporate limits of said town, the Town Commissioners of La Plata may pass such ordinances and by-laws from time to time as may be necessary, which said ordinances and by-laws shall have the force of law, and may be amended or repealed by the said Town Commissioners at their pleasure.

For enforcement of provisions of preceding section, etc.

104. All ordinances passed in pursuance of the foregoing sections of this Act shall be recorded by the clerk in a well-bound book, procured by the said Town Commissioners for the purpose, and the president shall sign his name to all ordinances as recorded, and the clerk shall attest the same; and a copy of all such ordinances, attested by the clerk, shall as soon as possible after the enactment thereof be posted in at least three public places in said town of La Plata.

Shall keep a record of all ordinances.

105. The Town Commissioners of La Plata may, as often as they may deem advisable, cause an assessment to be made of all the real and personal property within said town of La Plata or the corporate limits thereof by their clerk, which assessment shall not exceed the assessment of the same for county purposes (if the same be assessed for county purposes), and the said Town Commissioners may levy a tax thereon not exceeding twenty-five cents in the hundred dollars' worth of assessable property.

Assessment of real and personal property

106. Any person may appeal from the valuation of the assessor made as hereinbefore provided to the Town Commissioners of La Plata, who shall meet not less than ten days nor more than thirty days after such assessments shall have been completed, and remain in session from day to day, as long as may be necessary, to hear and determine such appeal;

May appeal from the valuation.
