

to any court of this State for the appointment of any receiver, trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, guardian or committee, it shall and may be lawful for such court to appoint the said corporation to act as such, and the accounts of said corporation as such shall be regularly settled before the court making such appointment, and upon such settlement and adjustment, all proper legal and customary charges, costs and expenses shall be allowed to said corporation for its care and management of the trusts and estates aforesaid, in accordance with the practice of the court so appointing in the case of natural persons when so appointed; and the said corporation, as such receiver, trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, guardian or committee, shall be subject to all lawful orders or decrees made by the said court.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said corporation be and is hereby authorized and empowered to receive and keep on deposit or storage or otherwise any articles, property, valuables or papers of any kind whatsoever, and take charge and custody of real and personal estates and securities, and advance money thereupon; and it may be lawful for any court of this State or United States court, into which moneys, stock, lands or other property may be paid or deposited by agreement of parties, order, judgment or decree of such court, to order and direct the same to be deposited with said corporation, and that any receiver, trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, guardian or committee, agent, public officer and municipal or private corporation having the control of any bonds, stocks, securities, moneys or valuables, shall be and is hereby authorized to deposit the same for safe-keeping with said corporation, and for the complete preservation of all articles or things so deposited for safe-keeping, the said corporation may construct, erect, purchase or lease such suitable buildings, and all other means which may be or become necessary, and to maintain and let for hire vaults, safes and like receptacles.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That whenever any court shall appoint the said corporation a receiver, trustee or assignee, executor, administrator, guardian or committee, or shall order the deposit of money or other valuables of any kind with said corporation, the capital stock of said corporation may be taken and considered as the security required by law for the faithful performance of any duty imposed upon it by the orders or decrees of such Court, unless the said Court shall deem proper to require further security; and the said corporation shall be absolutely liable in case of any default whatever; such Court may, from time to time, and whenever deemed advisable by Authority to receive on deposit valuables of all kinds.

Courts, executors, trustees, etc., may deposit stocks, bonds, money, etc.

Capital stock of said corporation as security.