

265D. The police justice of the peace in and for districts three, seventeen, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-four and twenty-five shall have criminal jurisdiction of offenses committed in any of the districts of said county cognizable by justices of the peace under the law, where complaint is made before him, but no warrant of arrest shall be issued by said police justice of the peace except upon the oath or affirmation of the person making complaint that an offense has been committed, and upon being satisfied, upon examination of such person making complaint under oath, of the probable truth of such charge.

Shall have criminal jurisdiction in any district in said county.

265E. No justice of the peace or constable appointed for any other district of said county shall have or exercise criminal jurisdiction of any kind in the town of Hagerstown, nor shall they have any criminal jurisdiction of offenses or violations of law committed in said town either by issuing warrants of arrest or serving process of any kind.

Justices for other districts shall not have jurisdiction in Hagerstown.

265F. The police justice of the peace in and for the districts three, seventeen, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-four and twenty-five of said county shall at the first regular meeting of the County Commissioners held in each month make a report in writing, verified under oath made before the Clerk of the County Commissioners for Washington County, of all criminal cases heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which report shall state in each case the name of the defendant, the offense charged, the name of the person upon whose complaint the warrant was issued, the name of the officer serving warrant and summons, the number of witnesses summoned, the judgment rendered, the amount of the fine or penalty imposed, the amount of cost taxed and the amount of fine, penalty and cost collected by him; and all such fines, penalties and costs, including constables' fees, which the said police justice of the peace is hereby required to collect, shall at the time of his making his said report be paid to the order of said County Commissioners; and the said police justice of the peace shall at the first regular meeting in every month of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown shall also make a similar report, as hereinbefore provided, of all cases tried before him for offenses committed under the charter and ordinances of Hagerstown, and shall pay over to the order of the said Mayor and Council all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed and collected by him for any violations of said charter and ordinances of said town, and also all costs incurred in said cases, and collected, including the same fees paid to constables for like services, which the said justices are hereby required to collect.

Shall make monthly report of all criminal cases tried, etc

Fines and costs. How disposed of.