The following message:

BY THE SENATE, JANUARY 3, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

"WE do not think your resolution of this day sufficiently explicit; a mere suspension of former appropriations may not be deemed by the treasurer a sufficient authority to apply the sum of nine thousand two hundred and seventy-six pounds nine shillings and eleven-pence to the several uses specified and appropriated by acts and resolves of the present session, therefore; to remove all doubt from the officer, we will pass both resolutions on this subject, provided the following words be added to your resolve of this day, "and the said sum shall be liable to the appropriations made for the present year."

By order, A. VAN-HORN, clk.

Which was read.

The resolution respecting the stadthouse, the resolution respecting the prisoners in Baltimore gaol, severally endorsed; "By the senate, January 3, 1800: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.
