The clerk of the senate delivers the following message:

By THE SENATE, NOVEMBER 26, 1799.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have duly considered your message of the twenty-third instant, proposing a conference upon sundry communications from the executive.

The senate are of opinion that the claim of Henry Harford is the only subject upon which a conference ought to take place; in that case they adopt it as the most eligible and expeditious mode of obtaining the necessary information.

Upon the other subjects they decline at present any conference.

We have appointed Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, John Campbell and William Hammond Dorsey, Esquires, conferees, to meet any gentlemen you may name to confer upon such part of the communications as relate to the claim of Henry Harford.

By order, A. VAN-HORN, clk.

Which was read.

ORDERED, That Mr. Duckett, Mr. Taney, Mr. Key, Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Digges, be a committee to prepare an answer to the said message.

The bill to revive the proceedings of the orphans court of Harford county, endorsed; "By the senate, November 21, 1799: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.
