On motion, ORDERED, That the bill to regulate elections, have a second reading on to-morrow.

The report on the petition of John Campbell was read the second time and rejected.

Mr. Calvert has leave of absence for a few days.

Mr. Magruder, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of William A. Needham, of Montgomery county, report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and find, that the petitioner enlisted in the 4th Maryland regiment in the service of the United States on the 3d of June, 1779, and that he continued in the service as a sergeant until the 15th of November, 1783, the conclusion of the war; it also appears to the committee, that he was wounded in the service of his country, by a musket ball's passing through his body, and that he has ever since been in a very disabled situation, and rendered thereby incapable of bodily exertion, to obtain a support; the committee are also of opinion, that the act of assembly passed at October session, 1778, held out to the petitioner at the time of his enlistment, the positive assurance, that in case he should be
