Mr. Potter, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report: THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Sarah Culbreth, of Caroline county, report, that they have examined the papers relating to said petition, together with the plot and certificate thereto annexed, and have reason to believe that the facts stated in said petition are true, they therefore are of opinion that the prayer of the petitioner ought to be granted, and that leave be given to bring in a bill pursuant thereto.

By order,

R. K. WATTS, clk.

Which was read the first and second time, concurred with, and leave given to bring in a bill pursuant thereto. ORDERED, That the committee appointed on the said petition prepare and bring in the same.

Mr. Key, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report: THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Anne Burnes, widow, and Marcia Burnes, daughter and heiress of David Burnes, of the city of Washington, have taken the same into consideration, and from knowledge and information of the truth of the facts therein stated, the committee are of opinion that a law should pass, authorising a trustee or trustees to execute conveyances for all lots sold by David Burnes in his life-time, and not already conveyed, to any person or persons entitled to have a conveyance thereof, on payment of the principal and interest of the purchase money, and not before; and also suggest the propriety of passing a law, authorising certain trustees to sell, not exceeding one fourth part of the lots in said city of which said Marcia is seized in fee, and which have not been heretofore sold. All which is submitted to the house.

By order,

S. MAYNARD, clk.

Which was read the first and second time, concurred with, and leave given to bring in a bill pursuant thereto. ORDERED, That the committee appointed on the said petition prepare and bring in the same.

The clerk of the senate delivers the following message:

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 6, 1799.

GENTLEMEN,

WE assent to your proposition of appointing a joint committee of both houses for the examination of all bills from time to time during this session, as soon as they shall be severally engrossed, and have appointed Nicholas Hammond, William Hindman and Charles Goldsborough, Esquires, to join the gentlemen nominated by you for that purpose.

By order,

A. VAN-HORN, clk.

Which was read.
