Mr. Quynn, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report: THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Rezin Davidge report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and are of opinion, that under the particular circumstances of his case, a special act ought to pass to release him from his debts.

By order,

R. K. WATTS, clk.

Which was read.

Mr. Johannot, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report: THE committee to whom was referred the petition of sundry inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, praying an act of incorporation, by the name of the Hope Interest Company of Baltimore, have examined the same, and find, that by a certificate of sundry respectable persons of Baltimore, such an act would tend very much to lower the price of rent, and contribute to the relief of the industrious poor in that city. The committee are of opinion that the prayer of the petition is reasonable, and ought to be granted. All which is submitted.

By order,

R. K. WATTS, clk.

Mr. Taney, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker the following report: THE committee to whom was referred the petition of William Davidson, Margaret Davidson, Thomas Harris, junior, and Eleanor his wife, report, that it appears to your committee, that the petitioners, together with two other persons who are minors, are entitled to a very considerable landed property in the city of Washington; that a bill has been filed in chancery by the petitioners against the two minors, to obtain a partition of said property; that it is the opinion of the chancellor, and also of the petitioners, that it would greatly enhance the value of the property, if the chancellor had power to cause a certain portion of the said property to be set apart and given up to the United States as lanes and alleys. It further appears to your committee, that Mary Davidson, one of the minors above mentioned, has intermarried with Henry Henly Chapman, Esquire, who is also of opinion that the power mentioned in the petition should be vested in the chancellor. Your committee, after taking the above facts into their serious consideration, beg leave to recommend to the house to grant the prayer of the petition, and give leave to bring in a bill pursuant thereto.

By order,

J. F. HARRIS, clk.

Which was read the first and second time, concurred with, and leave given to bring in a bill pursuant thereto. ORDERED, That the committee appointed on the said petition prepare and bring in the same.

Mr. Parnham, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to direct descents; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Key, from the committee, brings in and delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act directing the mode of executing conveyances of lots in the city of Washington sold by David Burnes in his life-time, and for other purposes; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T H U R S D A Y, December 12, 1799.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The resolution in favour of Walter Dulany, and the resolution in favour of Tristram Martin and Abner Parrott, were sent to the senate by the clerk.

A petition from Vachel Stevens, examiner-general of the western shore, praying an increase of fees, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Johannot, Mr. Parnham and Mr. Key, to consider and report thereon.

Mr. Turner is excused for absenting himself without leave.
